Edward Jones®

My name is Ara (pronounced "Sara" without the S) and I have the only Edward Jones branch office in Rabun County, located conveniently in downtown Clayton. Joining me on my team are Heather McCracken, a Senior Branch Office Administrator who holds her FPQP® designation; and Allie McDowell, Branch Office Administrator. Since Rabun County is a retirement destination, our practice consists of a larger-than-usual percentage of retirees.

Although this is a larger portion of our practice, we do enjoy helping clients prepare financially for their future from the ground up. Our ideal client does not need to walk through the door with two commas in their portfolio. A friendly disposition, a willingness to share and take advice, and a desire to learn or achieve a goal are all we are really looking for.

Growing up in West Virginia and then working in Pennsylvania, I wanted to plant my roots in what really felt like home, so a relocation to Rabun in 2011 was a natural fit. I love the outdoors, spending time with family and friends, and my community. My husband and I never had children of our own, so our legacy is our community. Through the years, I have served on many boards, but recently I have taken a step back to focus my attention on Rabun Paws 4 Life. We are Rabun County's open-admission, no-kill shelter, and we work hard to care for and house our abandoned, lost, and abused animals.

I am a past president of the local Clayton Rotary Club and now happily serve as a wrangler and participant at events. I grew up with a love of politics, and recently served my final term as a council member of City of Clayton.

If you are looking to rehome your accounts or start from scratch toward a goal, please give our office an opportunity to see if we are the right fit for you.
